

Local Matters.

TUESDAY MORNING, February 1, 1859.
FIRE.—The alarm of fire on Sunday evening was false.

CONTRACTION.—For shortening a dress with a steel band, Mrs. Francis was fined $6 by the Recorder.

TRAIL.—To E. Halliday, of the firm of A. & E. Halliday, and to R. S. Dean, of the Memphis and St. Louis, we tender our thanks for late papers.

INFORMATION.—Information is wanted in the whereabouts of Ervin S. Mitchell, by his father. See advertisement in another column.

ARMED EXPERT.—To the above questions, Dr. Jameson, of the firm of M. S. & J. M. Jameson, we are sure, make well oblige for very valuable exchanges.

WHERE TO GET THEM.—There are many people who prefer the quiet of the steel pens at Geo. Patterson & Co.'s, than have received a supply of them, ready.

CONVENTION OF THE WORLD.—The world will meet at Memphis, on Wednesday, the 2d, of February. There will be Divine Service at Calvary Church on Wednesday, at 7 o'clock P.M.

LOVE AND BEAUTY.—Geo. Patterson & Co., window, on Main street, near Madison, is unsurpassed in the city for attractiveness. The richest, most elegant, tasteful and fashionable valentines we ever saw are displayed.

AMBROSIA.—A large lamp of color of the olive, on Main street, between Washington and the temple, has not been lighted for several weeks. The neighbors thereabout wish the tallowlight would try his hand.

THE EVENING LADIES.—We are especially anxious to hear from the proprietors of the Evening Ladies, that they will publish their weekly paper, as it will be popularly used now, however, that it will appear regularly thereafter, without interruption from outside influence.

AMBROSIA.—And other signs of likelessness that bear the stamp of art, in Mrs. Gentry's, opposite Old Father Hall. It is to be hoped that daily visits to this famous Gallery, to procure pictures pictures will be frequent, and afford the wants of all my old friends, and afford them some board for Nashville to-day. She is a punctual and well managed host, and always board on trust.

The Little Republic of Saturday.
